GENOA CITY

Genoa, a wonderful city with so many beautiful opportunities. Art and culture, tradition and innovation, sea and mountain horizons, festivals and entertainment, delights to be admired and savored. All characterized by a mild climate all year round.

Sides of interest:

THE OLD TOWN

Genoa is the best example in Europe and in the Mediterranean of an almost entirely preserved medieval city. A large part of the site has been declared World Heritage Site by UNESCO.

THE LANTERNA http://it.wikipedia.org/wiki/Lanterna_di_Genova

The ancient lighthouse, built in the XII century, 117 meters high, guiding ships into the port.

PARCO URBANO DELLE MURA (City Park)

The park lies along the ridges that separate the Polcevera and Bisagno Valleys, on the hills behind Genoa, with its 876 hectares is the largest green lung of the city

THE AQUARIUM www.acquariodigenova.it

Ponte Spinola, Old Port Area

Is the largest marine park in Europe: 71 tanks, 800 species, more than 10.000 unique species in the backdrop of the Gulf of Genoa.

PALAZZO DUCALE www.palazzoducale.genova.it

Matteotti Square, 9

The residence of the Doges since 1339, it is a center of excellence for major events and prestigious exhibitions.

MUSEO DEL MARE www.galatomuseodelmare.it

Calata de Mari, 1

The sea is the main protagonist of a spectacular and innovative museum in the heart of the port area: with its 10.000 square meters of exhibition spaces, it is the largest museum dedicated to the sea in the Mediterranean area. Reflecting the sea, the glass structure of Galata immediately suggests the transparency of the water.

THE CATHEDRAL www.museidigenova.it

San Lorenzo Square

Built around 1098, expanded over the centuries, solemn and precious, it holds the ashes of St. John the Baptist, the patron saint of the city. The Treasure Museum and the Diocesan Museum are well worth a visit.

NERVI PARKS www.museidigenova.it

Via Capolungo, Genoa Nervi

Historic villas, a prestigious location close to major museums, embellish a landscape of exceptional natural beauty.
