Accommodation:

A trullo (plural, trulli) is a traditional Apulian stone dwelling with a conical roof. The style of construction is specific to the Itria Valley (in Italian: Valle d'Itria), in the Murge area of the Italian region of Apulia (in Italian Puglia). They may be found in the towns of Alberobello, Locorotondo, Fasano, Cisternino, Martina Franca and Ceglie Messapica. Trulli were generally constructed as dwellings or storehouses.

These trulli have been recently renovated and have all facilities: fully equipped kitchen, 2 bedrooms, living room, studio, 2 bathrooms, garage. Air conditioning, central heating, alarm, private entrance. Garden with external lighting, gazebo, barbecue, table and chairs, large parking, automatic gate.

Location:

Martina Franca is the second most populated city in the province of Taranto. Since 1975, the town hosted the annual summer opera festival, the "Festival della Valle d'Itria". The town has a particularly beautiful "old city" surrounded by stone walls with prominent Baroque gates leading to piazzas and winding, tiny streets. The "Piazza di Roma" is the largest open space in the old city, with a green space in the center of a largely triangular place.
